

CASE STUDY

ELEVATOR DOOR RAIL

- Application developed for a company whose main activity is elevator maintenance and services.
- One of the most important interest in the company was to avoid work with suppliers of metal or plastic.
- The wear resistance of MyMat products as well as the flexibility and mechanical requirements are joined in this application.
- This end product is in use.

